

Under the Spotlight!

Arcadians Theatre Newsletter

July 2013

Congratulations to the cast and crew of Leader of the Pack.

Most of us know that the journey of choosing, casting, rehearsing and staging a show can have many hurdles and the team was not spared in this regard but, as the saying goes, everything went right on the night!! It was certainly a very entertaining journey for many of us who grew up in the 60's to hear favourite songs done so very well!! Yay team!

2014 Season Launch

Wednesday 21st July, 2013

At 7.30pm

To help with catering for the event
go to our website and log into to register your attendance

Arcadians 50th Birthday!!!

As reported last newsletter, please mark 27th September 2014 in your diaries as this will be the day of CELEBRATION!

We hope to be able to tell you the venue as part of the 2014 Season Launch on 31st July 2013.

Don't forget if you would like to record your story of your time with Arco's send it to arcos50th@arcadians.org.au. If you don't have computer access contact someone on committee and we will be happy to help you.
This will all be part of a history book which we are hoping to create for this special event!

Arcadians Children's Theatre is up and running with their rehearsals for Sheerluck Holmes which will go on stage on September 20, 21 and 22, 2013.
Bookings are now available at the website or by phoning Pauline on 4284 8348

Plans are afoot for an end of year concert—another in our series of special concerts which was started by the late David McD Gallacher.
Jack Dawson has taken this little baby on and is calling it Follies Flipped.
The idea is for guys to sing a girl's song and vice versa—so those of you who have wished you could sing a song generally presented by the opposite sex, this is your chance. There will be 2 performances at 2pm on Saturday 14th December and Sunday 15th December with a Christmas gathering following the Sunday show.
A lovely way to round of 2013!
